

Dayton Navy Week, June 13-19

Experience Your U.S. Navy at these Public Events

Monday, June 13

- Navy Band Performance @ MetroParks, 6:00 pm
- Historical presentation by USS Constitution Sailors @ Northwest Branch Public Library, 6:00 pm

Tuesday, June 14

- Navy Day @ University of Dayton, 9:00am-12:00 (Noon) - Historical presentation by USS Constitution Sailors, performance by Navy Band Northeast's popular music group, and interactive STEM truck experience
- Navy Band performance @ Fraze Pavilion for Flag Day Celebration, 6:00 pm

Wednesday, June 15

- Navy Band performances @ Carillon Park, 9:30-2:00 pm - Special performance with local high school band at 12:00
- Navy Night @ The Dayton Dragons, 6-7:00 pm - Performance by Navy Band Northeast's Ceremonial Band, history of Naval Base ball display, Rear Admiral John Haley throwing out the first pitch, and Color Guard by the USS Constitution Sailors

Thursday, June 16

- Navy Band performance @ Courthouse Square, 12-1:00 pm
- Historical presentation by USS Constitution Sailors @ Huber Heights Branch Library

Friday, June 17

- Navy STEM Day @ Boonshoft Museum of Discovery, 8:30 am-5:30 pm - Interactive STEM truck experience and special STEM activity on how waves are generated
- Navy Band performance @ Courthouse Square, 12-1:00 pm
- Navy Band performance @ Schmidlapp Stage, 7:00 pm

Saturday & Sunday, June 18-19

- Performances by the Blue Angels Flight Demonstration Team and Leapfrogs Navy Parachute Team at the Vectren Dayton Air Show